

Montgomery Bell Academy

Summer Reading List

Tenth Grade 2005-2006

Each boy who will enter the tenth grade is to read and prepare notes on the following books. The directions are on the back of this page.

Ernest Gaines
Mark Twain

A Lesson before Dying
Adventures of Huckleberry Finn

In addition, this year we have decided to select a book for the entire school to read, Life of Pi by Yann Martel. Be ready to write and talk about this book when you come for registration in August.

Because of a change in the sequence of history courses, primarily based on a desire to align American history and American literature and to allow more collaboration between English and history teachers, rising sophomores will read a fourth book selected by the history department and then will answer questions about the book designed by the history teachers. The history department's choice is as follows:

Edmund Morgan

Ben Franklin
